few days as a green spot in life's desert tramp."

Mr. Hubbard offered a vote of thanks to the President (Henry King) and all the other officers connected with the Convention: passed.

Convention waiting for the final report of the Committee on Finance, was entertained with speeches short and pertinent by several gentlemen, including Messrs. Jas. Turner of Lexington; Wm. Turner of Frankfort; E. B. Cheatham of Marion and others. The Committee appearing, the gentlemen gave way to hear their report.

The Committee through their chairman J. Madison Harris submitted the following REPORT.

Thirty-seven Delegates were assessed at two dollars per capita; of these twenty-four have paid. Thirteen have absented themselves, (gone home,) indebted to the Convention twenty-six dollars. Of the incidental money the Committee have remaining in their possession twenty-nine dollars and forty cents; received from subscriptions thirty-five dollars, of which sum eighty cents is not available, leaving thirty-four dollars and twenty cents.

Received from Delegates, - - - - $ 48 00

" for Incidental expenses, - - - 29 40

" from Subscriptions, - - - 34 20

Total, $111 60

J. M. HARRIS, Chairman.